

Genesis 1 v1-2: “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was a formless void, there was darkness over the deep, and God’s spirit hovered over the water.”

Luke 1 v5: “In the days of King Herod of Judea there lived a priest called Zechariah who belonged to the Abijah section of the priesthood, and he had a wife, Elizabeth by name, who was a descendant of Aaron.”

In this quotation there is a paragraph break at the start of verse 3:

“In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was a formless void, there was darkness over the deep, and God’s spirit hovered over the water.

“God said, ‘Let there be light’, and there was light.”

There is no need for a paragraph break at the start of this quote: “God said, ‘Let there be light’, and there was light.”

Using `\whiledo`:

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was a formless void, there was darkness over the deep, and God’s spirit hovered over the water.

God said, ‘Let there be light’, and there was light.
