Submission Procedure

Write all the files comprising the application to a CD or DVD and test that it works on one of the PC lab computers. Write your student number on the CD or DVD.

Print an assignment cover sheet from your portal.

Attach your written work and the CD or DVD (in a suitable cover) to the cover sheet.

Written coursework should be submitted by following the standard CMP practice. Students are advised to refer to the Guidelines and Hints on Written Work in CMP (<http://www.uea.ac.uk/cmp/links/Reports>).

Deadlines

Coursework should be submitted before 23:59 on the deadline day. Work is to be submitted via the Hub drop boxes up to 22:00 in the LTS Hub, and there will be a late box in the Library for submissions between 22:00 and midnight.

If coursework is handed in after the deadline day or an agreed extension:

Work submitted	Marks deducted
On the day following the due date	10 marks
On either the 2nd or 3rd day after the due date	20 marks
On the 4th day after the due date and before the 20th day after the due date	All the marks the work merits if submitted on time (i.e. no marks awarded)
After 20 working days	Work will not be marked and a mark of zero will be entered

All extension requests will be managed through the LTS Hub. A request for an extension to a deadline for the submission of work for assessment should be submitted by the student to the appropriate Learning and Teaching Service Hub, prior to the deadline, on a University Extension Request Form accompanied by appropriate evidence. Extension requests will be considered by the appropriate Learning and Teaching Service Manager in those instances where (a) acceptable extenuating circumstances exist and (b) the request is submitted before the deadline. All other cases will be considered by a Coursework Coordinate in CMP.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the copying of close paraphrasing of published or unpublished work, including the work of another student; without due acknowledgement. Plagiarism is regarded a serious offence by the University, and all cases will be investigated. Possible consequences of plagiarism include deduction of marks and disciplinary action, as detailed by UEA's Policy on Plagiarism and Collusion.
